

Carls of wisdom for Kuoni Academy Students from the industry experts week following the ural program, the Babulnath was visited by many a big in the global hospitality, and tourism industry.

managers to company ents, each and every one of iting guests brought along raise and compliments to uly international centre ft after a word of advice e students.

g the travel industry will open doors to the world. And apart at, I urge you to travel to the ot only will you learn more international travel but it's a that will truly change you."

orough, Operations Manager - British Deputy ission

"Given that Italians and Indians are very similar people, I can say that a career in travel is a great choice and it will be both rewarding and satisfying."

Giampaolo Cutillo, Consul General in Mumbai - Italy

"Remember to always enjoy what you do, and you shall be successful."

Michael Newbill, Pol/Econ Section Chief

"Learning is a never ending journey, so never ever give up the opportunity to learn."

Bhaskar Das, Executive President - Bennett Coleman & Co. Ltd.

"Every aspect of the travel industry is equally interesting and as challenging, be it airlines, hotels, tour operating or airport management."

Jean Phillippe Benoit, Senior Sales Manager - Swiss International

"Try to travel extensively, because travelling teaches you a lot."

Francois Pujolas, Consul General - France

"Work hard. Don't expect the industry to be glamorous. If you give your best, you will be rewarded."

Medha Sampat, Country Head - South African Tourism Board

"Think differently and you will make a difference. Aspire to be the CEO, and believe that nothing is impossible."

Satish Jayaram, Principal - IHM-A

Sandra Seigrist, Swiss Expert Faculty, Guest Relation and Sales Training & Daniella Notter, Swiss Expert Faculty, Marketing

